To my Sisters at the local, Department and National levels who have educated me since the age of seventeen in the ways of the Order, and without whom I would not be in this position, I thank you. To my second grandmother Past National President Edith Nile for making certain I understood the Constitution, Rules and Regulations, protocol, the significance of the Grand Army of the Republic (GAR) and respect for these men and their sacrifices, and to my other second grandmother Past National Vice President Margaret Gehret for teaching me how to run a meeting, the floor work, the proper procedures of our Order, and letting me become a strong person, I thank you. Both inculcated in me fraternal relations and a belief that all five Allied Orders of the GAR are equally important. I wish they could be here to see what they accomplished.
