We failed to legislate at the National Encampment whether the Rituals were to be replaced or sold. Due to the cost of printing them, it is the consensus of opinion of the Members of the National Council and the National Counselor that the Rituals be sold. The Rituals are in the process of printing.

MESSAGE FROM THE NATIONAL VICE PRESIDENT

WANTED: Members for the "Busy Bea's Honor Roll."

Applicants must be members of the Auxiliary to the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War and must secure 5 New Members for their Auxiliary during the next six months. Reply to the National Vice President,

BEATRICE S. RIGGS,

HONOR ROLL

Mollie Sneberg, Department President.....7 California
Florence Tallman5 California
May Taylor5 California

The Circular Letters of the National Patriotic Instructor, Ellmore Konrad, and Celeste D. Gentieu, P. N. P., Chairman of the Grand Army of the Republic Memorial Fund, have been sent to the Departments for distribution.

Ruth Muzzy, National Chief-of-Staff, is asking for the donation of aprons that she may have an Apron Sale at the National Encampment.

Won't you try to answer the appeal of the Sisters who strive so hard to collect these funds.

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC COMMEMORATIVE STAMP

In celebration of the completion of the Grand Army of the Republic Highway, please write to your U. S. Senator and the Postmaster General, Hon. Arthur E. Summerfield, Washington, D. C., asking for their assistance in supporting our request for the Commemorative Stamp.

The National Encampment will be held in Buffalo, N. Y., August 23-27, 1953, at the Hotel Lafayette. Reservation Cards accompany this Order.

IN MEMORIAM

Comrade William A. Magee, Civil War Veteran, of Van Nuys, California, answered the Last Roll Call on January 23, 1953. The sympathy of the Officers and Members of the National Organization is extended his Family.

The sincere sympathy of the National Organization is extended to Emma Finch, P. N. P., in the loss of her Sister; and to Rose Isaacs, Past National Patriotic Instructor, in the loss of a beloved Husband, Julius Isaacs, Secretary-Treasurer of New York Department.

To all who have been bereaved. May God grant you strength to bear your loss.

Loyally yours in F. C. & L.,

LILA A. MACEY,

National President.

Attest:

ALICE D. THOMPSON,
National Secretary.
